

I am opposed to the FCC preempting the individual State's right to pass regulation more stringent than those of the Federal Government to protect Telephone Consumers from Telemarking calls. Specifically, I am opposed to the FCC causing any change to the present New Jersey regulation.